PREFACE

This fifth supplement to the 1970 edition of the United States Code has been prepared and published pursuant to section 285b of title 2 of the Code. It contains the additions to and changes in the general and permanent laws of the United States enacted during the Ninety-second and Ninety-third Congresses, and the Ninety-fourth Congress, First Session. This supplement together with the 1970 edition establishes prima facie those laws in effect on January 18, 1976, except that titles 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 13, 14, 17, 18, 23, 28, 32, 35, 37, 38, 39, and 44, having been enacted into law, establish legal evidence of the law contained in those titles.

In addition to the general and permanent laws found herein, this supplement includes the Bankruptcy Rules and Official Bankruptcy Forms, set out in the Appendix to Title 11; the Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Panel of Multi-district Litigation, set out following section 1407 of Title 28; the amendments to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, effective December 1, 1975; the Federal Rules of Evidence, effective July 1, 1975, set out in the Appendix to Title 28; and the Rules of United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, set out in the Appendix to Title 35. These rules are incorporated into the Code to enable the user to locate in one convenient place not only the statutory enactments but also the latest procedural developments in certain specialized areas.

Increased interest in the affairs of the District of Columbia is also evident by new reference material first set out in the third supplement. Two new Tables, Tables III–A and III–B, have been added as aids in determining the relationship between provisions of the United States Code and the District of Columbia Code.

This supplement continues the practice of setting out notes captioned "Section referred to in other sections". These notes have been inserted following each section that is referred to in the text of another section, indicating the section that contains the internal reference. These notes have proved to be useful to the Congress, the bench and bar, and the public.

This supplement has been prepared and published under the supervision of Edward F. Willett, Jr., Law Revision Counsel of the House of Representatives, with the assistance of the West Publishing Company, of St. Paul, Minnesota, which assisted in preparing all prior editions and supplements of the Code. Grateful acknowledgment is made of the cooperation by all who have helped in this work, particularly by the staffs of the publishing company and of the Office of the Law Revision Counsel, and by the several sections of the Government Printing Office.

Carl Albert

Speaker of the House of Representatives

JANUARY 18, 1976.

§ 112b. United States international agreements; transmission to Congress.

The Secretary of State shall transmit to the Congress the text of any international agreement, other than a treaty, to which the United States is a party as soon as practicable after such agreement has entered into force with respect to the United States but in no event later than sixty days thereafter. However, any such agreement the immediate public disclosure of which would, in the opinion of the President, be prejudicial to the national security of the United States shall not be so transmitted to the Congress but shall be transmitted to the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate and the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives under an appropriate injunction of secrecy to be removed only upon due notice from the President. (Added Pub. L. 92–403, § 1, Aug. 22, 1972, 86 Stat. 619.)

CHANGE OF NAME

The name of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives was changed to Committee on International Relations on March 19, 1975, by House Resolution 163, 94th Congress.
